Understands Appropriate Ways to Deal with Problems with Others (SC.13)

Role Play

SETTING/CONTEXT: The peers are sitting at lunch talking about yesterday's all-school talent show.

Peer 1: Jessica's performance was SO good! She's such a good dancer.

Peer 2: I know! I wish I had taken dance classes.

Jolene: She was really good! Did you guys hear Tyler sing? He has such a good voice – I didn't know he could sing.

Peer 3: Ha, sounds like somebody likes Tyler a bit.

Jolene: No I just thought he was a good sing-

Peer 2: You've got a crush on Tyler! We know it!

Peer 1: Oh my gosh you totally do! You wanna marry him, don't you?

Jolene: Uh, no, seriously guys I just think he sang well.

Peer 3: You TOTALLY like him.

Jolene: Hey, I know you're joking, but I don't like it when you tease me about this kind of stuff. Please stop.

Peer 1: Alright, alright guys. Let's stop. She doesn't like Tyler. He is a good singer.
